Warren Tenney is executive director for the Arizona Municipal Water Users Association (AMWUA). AMWUA is comprised of ten Arizona municipalities who work collaboratively on water resource issues and advocate for sound water management policies. AMWUA’s members include Avondale, Chandler, Gilbert, Glendale, Goodyear, Mesa, Peoria, Phoenix, Scottsdale, and Tempe, which collectively provides water to more than half of Arizona’s population.

Before becoming AMWUA’s executive director, Mr. Tenney had been the assistant general manager for Metro Water District in Pima County, Arizona, since 1994.

Mr. Tenney was a two-term elected member of the Central Arizona Project (CAP) Board of Directors representing Pima County. While a Board member, he served as vice-president of the CAP Board for three years and also served as chair of the Public Policy Committee. Mr. Tenney resigned his CAP Board position in January 2016 to join AMWUA.

Mr. Tenney is a member of the Governor’s Water Augmentation Council and is a fourth generation Arizonan. He earned his Bachelor of Arts at Arizona State University and a Master of Arts at Northern Arizona University.
